PALMETTO PARK MEETING TO ENTER UPON ITS FINAL WEEK TODAY.

Season Has Not Been a Financial Success, but Management Will Not Face a Deficit-Exodus to Other Tracks Begins.

Charleston, S. C., December 27.—Tomorrow will bring the beginning of the final week of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association's twenty-eight day meeting. The meeting will come to a close next Saturday. The exodus of owners and their horses to Havana and New Orleans, where meetings are soon to begin, has already commenced. The indications are that the horses that have raced here will be divided quite equally between Havana and New Orleans.

The Palmetto Park meeting has not been a financial success, although it is understood that there will not be a deficit. With better weather than has prevailed the association might have booked a profit in spite of the depression from which this city, in common with the rest of the south, is suffering. Weather conditions have been any thing but favorable throughout the greater part of the meeting, but on fair days the patronage has been highly eacouraging.

On the whole, the meeting has been conducted in a way that has wen golden opinions for the management among the horsemen. The only cause for criticism has been the syndicating of the betting ring and that was something that could not be helped, under existing conditions. The sport itself has been well supervised by the officials.

The final week will be ushered in with a muddy track and wintry weather, and as rain is still falling here tonight, there is little likehood of a fast track for any of the remaining six days.

For the feature of the closing week the management has provided the New Year Handicap, one mile and an eighth, with a guaranteed value of $1,500. This is for all aged horses and closed with twenty-three nominatiens. A good field will go to the post in this event, but Harry Shaw, winner of the Christmas Handicap and other races at this, meeting, will not be a starter, because his former owner, R. J. Allison, did not nominate him. Racing Secretary Nathanson has filled out the rest of the New Year Park its seeping with the holiday occasion and the total successing with the holiday occasion and the purchase

There was a considerable exodus Saturday night and today to New Orleans and Havana and special trains will run to both places at intervals during the coming week. Judging from the list of reservations made for stall room at New Orleans that track will have plenty of horses for its forty-one day meeting, but Havana will also get a goodly number.

day meeting, but Havana will also get a goodly number.

The first delegation of turfmen to leave for Havana departed Saturday night, while a large contingent left for New Orleans this afternoon. Among those who went to the Crescent City were Harry Shaw, W. E. Burke, jockey Gur Burns, and many others well known in turf circles. A special train carrying horses will leave for New Orleans to-morrow afternoon.

The racing last week, while not especially formful, was interesting, and close finishes were the rule. The choices have been having hard sledding all through the local meeting, but most of the winners have been well backed.

Many of the owners who contemplate racing in Havana will remain here until after the close of the local meeting next Saturday. A few are planning to winter their horses here. Practically all of those who will race at New Orleans will have left before the local meeting is over.

Steward Jack Campbell, who will be clerk of the scales at New Orleans, will leave Tuesday night for that city.

By his excellent riding last week jockey Lilley jumped well up in the list of winning riders here, but jockey E. Pool is still on top.

WHAT A THOROUGHBRED WILL STAND.

In commenting on remarkable recoveries made by race horses after receiving injuries almost necessitating their destroyal, "Mankato," in the Manchester Sporting Chronicle, instances the case of a mare named Grecian Maid, which won the Nottingham Handicap in October. In April of last year, when being sent from Netheravon to Penrith, she fell down between the loading platform and some adjacent, wagens. In this situation she was held as in a vice, and though improvised slings and blocks were regulsitioned, all efforts to raise the mare proved abortive. Something had to be done, and so it was decided to bring up a light engine and haal out the wagon, which was one of a series standing in the leading dock. In its passage the wagon tore great chunks of skin and muscle out of the mare's side and quarter, while the side next the platform was brised and scarred in shocking fashion. With the removal of the binding wagon Grecian Maid's troubles were by no means over. She had still to be hauled up to the landing dock, and in getting her there more damage was done. This time it was the mare's legs which suffered most. Altegether she was a sad object three hours later, though the railway company's veterinary surgeon had done all be could to relieve her sufferings and to make her injuries look as presentable as possible. How she managed to walk from the station to the livery stables over a quarter of a mile distant is a mystery.

Though no bones were broken, there were clear indications that Grecian Maid's liver and kidneys had not escaped unburt, and that the muscles situated on the lower side of the loin vertebra were seriously involved. In her predicament any horse other than a thoroughbred would have made no attempt to stand, let alone place one foot before another. Yet this mare bore up gamely day after day, unaided by slings—which could not be used on account of the injuries to her side and internal organs. In less than two months' time from the date of the accident she had recovered sufficiently to admit of her removal

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

B., Chicago. When a horse has left the pad-c and entered the track on its way to the post, sthen in the starters control, and all wagers on stand, no matter whether it actually runs in the race or not. A case in point was that of Groyer Hughes at Juarez last Friday, all wagers on him being lost.

BROOM FLOWER CHANGES HANDS.

Lexington, Ky., December 27.—J. H. Stamper, Jr., of this city has purchased the two-year-old filly Broom Flower, by Broomstick—Kildeer, from Phil Musgrave, who is now at Mt. Vernon, Ind. John Hogan will train Broom Flower.

RECORD OF MILES IN 1:39 OR BETTER

At Louisville, May 27, 1877, Ten Broeck electrified racing enthusiasts by runinng a mile in the then unprecedented time of 1:39%. This record stood until Racine reduced it to 1:39½ at Washington Park in 1800. This time was equaled at Morris Park by La Tosca in 1891 and at the same track Chorister ran a mile in 1:39½ in 1893. It was not until 1894 that a mile was run in better than 1:39, Libertine scoring in 1:38% at Harlem, October 24 of that year, it thus requiring seventeen years to reduce the Ten Broeck record to the full extent of a second. Previously in that same year, 1894, a mile had for the first time in this country been run in 1:39. This was when George Forbes' speedy old selling plater, Arab, covered a mile in that time at Morris Park, June 11, and Ducat equaled this time at Sheepshead Bay. August 28. The Libertine record held good until 1900, when Voter ran a mile in 1:38 at Brighton Beach, and Orimar did the same at Washington Park. In 1901 Brigadier became the record holder by running a mile at Sheepshead Bay in 1:37%, and held that distinction until Allan-a-Dale cut the time to 1:37% at Washington Park. July 1, 1902. Allan-a-Dale's supremacy was short-lived, lasting until August 14 of the same year, when Dick Welkes established the faster record of 1:37% at Harlem. This time was fied by Kiamesha at Belmont Park, October 9, 1905, it was not again equaled until August 15, 1908, when Fern L., carrying the light burden of 80 pounds, ran in the same time at Seattle.

From the time horses began to run over the new Santa Anita track it was obvious that it was such a phenomenally fast course that in time it must inevitably hold many of the records. It acquired the mile record December 22, 1908, when Centre Shot, with 105 pounds in the saddle, set a new record of 1:37%. Fast as the Santa Anita track was, it has a faster successor in the Juarez course. On December 12, 1913, such an ordinary racer as the four-year-old filly. Manasseh, ran mile over it in 1:37½, thereby equaling the long-standing record of C passed.

On September 3, 1914, however, the Juarez track lost the distinction of holding the American mile record when R. T. Wilson's six-year-old gelding, Amali, ran the distance in 1:36½ in winning a race over the New York State Fair track at Syracuse. The fact that the Syracuse course was also used for trotting laces and therefore had a harder surface than the tracks devoted exclusively to thoroughbred racing was a factor in Amali's wonderful performance, which now stands as the American record.

In these days a mile in 1:39 attracts no great attention because fast miles are frequent, Since 1890 it has been the fashion to make tracks as conductive to speedy performances as possible and the advancing art of track conditioning has been directed steadily to that end. Still, it is fast renning anywhere, and miles in 1:38 and fractions are of surpassing excellence. Since Arab first ran a mile in 1:39 in 1894 that time has been equaled or surpassed 591 times, including 127 occasions during 1914, and as a matter of interest this publication presents its readers with the following complete list of all miles run in 1:39 or better over recognized tracks:

TEXAS FUTURITY IS RUN

BEN'S BROTHER WINS STAKE RECENTLY TRANSFERRED TO JUAREZ TRACK.

Sunday Crowd of Usual Proportions Visits Mexican Course and Racing Is Again Formful in Spite of Wretched Track Conditions.

El Paso, Tex., December 27.—Today found the customarily large Sunday crowd at the Juarez track, The weather was delightful, but the track was heavier than ever and on the holding order. Notwithstanding the unfavorable track condititons, first choices accounted for half the card.

The Texas Futurity, confined to two-year-olds bred by members of the Texas Thoroughbred Association, was the particular feature of the day's racing. Because of the wretched track conditions there were only three starters. Ben's Brother, from the stable of J. F. Newman and Sons, ruled an odds-on favorite, and was an easy winner after jockey Loftus induced him to forego a tendency to loaf along. Fred T., now in the stable of J. C. Ferris, was the runner-up all the way. Lesbia owned by R. N. Vestal, was the other contestant and she was always outpaced. The race was formerly a fixture in connection with the Texas State Fair at Dallas, but has been transferred to Juarez.

Favorites were beaten in the first three races.

connection with the Texas State Fair at Dallas, but has been transferred to Juarez.

Favorites were beaten in the first three races. Annual Interest, the second choice, went on to an easy victory in the opener, after California Jack, the early pacemeaker and favorite, retired. In the second race Thistle Belle turned the tables on her whilom conqueror, Orimar Lad. The latter which has won distinction as one of the most consistent horses of the meeting to date, had his usual speed, but Thistle Belle pressed him closely from the beginning and drew away after passing into the lead. Amity, the favorite, essayed the pacemaking in the third, but soon gave way to Fairly and the latter scored with ease, while Luke Van Zandt got up to beat the favorite for second money.

Judge Gheens, which ruled first choice for the fifth, narrowly escaped defeat by Mercurium. The latter worked his way up from last place and lost by only a neck. Wild Bear, from which much was expected, ran a dull race and was never prominent. Judge Sale was held at odds-on for the closing dash and made good in a hard drive with Sleepland, which enjoyed considerable lead at one stage of the running.

There will be no racing at Juarez until New Year's iday, by which time it is hoped the course will be in fair condition at least. The management will spare no pains in working it, to the end that patrons of the club may be provided with sport that will be up to the Juarez standard, which of course has suffered during the long continued spell of muddy going.

Jockey Loftus, who has signed to ride pext year for S. L. Parsons and H. K. Kpann will report to going. Jockey Loftus, who has signed to ride next year for S. L. Parsons and H. K. Knapp, will report to W. H. Karrick May 1.

AN OLD TIMER'S REMINISCENCES.

Talking about betting. Every oldtimer has heard of Lord George Bentinck and the superb groan to which he gave vent, according to Benjamin Disraeli, when he heard that Surplice, a son of the great Touchstone, had won the Derby. Lord Roseberry is said when young to have desired three things—to be prime minister, to marry the wealthiest girl in England and to win the Derby. He had his heart's youthful desire, but to Lord Bentinck, great uncle to the present Duke of Portland, was denied during his thirteen years on the turf, his one great ambition, namely to win the big Epsom event. He won the Two Thousand Guineas, the One Thousand and the Oaks with that great mare, Crucifix, but the Derby he strove after in vain. He sold Surplice along with all his horses on his retirement from racing to devote himself to politics. A week after the son of Touchstone and the aforementioned Crucifix had added the St. Leger to his laurels Lord George, at the early age of 46, was found dead on his father's estate at Welbeck, having died according to the coroner's jury "by the visitation of God." But I started in to talk of betting.

Lord George Bentinck, although up to his time the greatest reformer the turf had known, was decidedly fond of a gamble, just as other famous politicians of the past have been, not omitting Charles James Fox and Edmund Burke. He stood to win three-quarters of a million dollars on his horse, Gaper, in the Derby, but shrewdly did not overlook Mr. Bowes' Cotherstone, another son of Touchstone, the actual winner, bis own candidate, being unplaced, and cleared $150,000. Two years later he acknowledged to having netted half a million dollars on the season's transactions. On his mare Cruciffx he cleared $400,000. #### ONE GERMAN TURF NEWSPAPER ALIVE.

The advent of war between the clashing nations of Europe quickly brought about the abandonment of continental racing and the suspension of publications dependent on the sport for support. But it seems the leading German turf newspaper, Deutscher Sport, of Berlin, has remained in publication, as witness the following from London Sportsman of a recent date:

Sport, of Berlin, has remained in publication, as witness the following from London Sportsman of a recent date:

"With reference to a recent note in this column concerning items of interest which appeared in 'Deutscher Sport,' Herr George Ehlers, the editor of our contemporary, writes me 'that, unlike 'Le Sport Belge,' and the French sporting papers,' his paper 'never ceased to appear, but that since October 1 it is only published twice a week, on Thursdays and Sundays.' He adds: 'We are the only sporting paper' (in German presumably) 'which has regularly published, from August 1, English racing results, and a lot of our sportsmen applauded this snorting manner of keeping up the old custom.' While giving Herr Ehlers credit for keeping 'Deutscher Sport' going, I should like to point out for his benefit that had Berlin been in a similar plight to Brussels, and, in the early stages of 'the war, Paris, he might not now be in a position to plume himself at the expense of 'Le Sport Belge,' and the French Sporting papers. The 'Le Sport Belge,' and the French Sporting papers. The 'Le Sport Belge,' and the war, is now temporarily published in London, but the whirligig of war-time brings about curious changes, and even Berlin, in the fullness of time, may find itself in the position of Brussels, or Paris, in the carly days of the war. Should that dread eventuality arise, 'Deutscher Sport,' no doub', will still be published as usual—if not in Berlin, possibly in Constantinople."

JUMPING PROSPECTS OVER IN ENGLAND.

Away back in the seventies and eighties, when, if less in quantity, sport under National Hunt auspices was of far superior quality. Newmarket was an important schooling ground for jumpers. At that period Captain Machell, one of the keenest patrons the sport ever knew, had a team of high-class horses under the charge of Joseph Cannon at Bedford Cottage, after a considerable term at Packington, Later Jewitt became responsible for the jumpers at Kennett, but Cannon's association was, infect, as close as ever, although the flat racces—under the versatile captain's management were lischief concern. Both were fine horsemen, "Uncleden's particularly so, and contemporary with him at Newmarket was Rielard Marsh, who used to ride for Tom Golby and Weever before he took up nis residence at headquarters to train for Mr. Baltazzi, the Duke of Hamilton, Mr. Craig, and others. He prepared and rode many important cross-country and hundle-race winners about this time. A trio of better all-round men it would be hard to name, and their individual and collective experiences in the jumping department of racing would make interesting reading. Better class horses were put to the game than nowadays, and a lot of good animals were trained and ridden by Cannon, a few that can be called to mind without reference to the books being the steeplechasers Disturbance, Rengray, and Regal, and Chandos, Hesper, Prudhomme, Benburb, Shaplock, and Bellona among hurdle racers. It is, I believe, his opinion that Disturbance was the greatest steeplechaser of his time, and of timbertoppers Chandos would probably command his vote, though he held Snaplock in high esteem in later years. This horse was unlucky in that something went wrong just before he was expected to confirm his private excellence in public. As for riding, his trimaphs were many, but his best performance was one Regal when, after a despectate race he beat "Teddy" Wilson on Congress by a neck for the Granu Nationan, when Chandos started a screaming hot favorite but fell at the Canal fence the second time round. Regai originally belonged to Mr. C. J. Lefevre, and although he ran in the name and colors of Captain Machell at Aintree, it would be nearer the truth to assign ownership conjointly to the late King Edward—then Prince of Wales—and the late Lord Aylesford, who at the time were visiting India.

Marsh had nothing to do with the winter business since he moved to Egerton House, except ps regards Molfaa, which passed into the late King's possession after winning the Grand National, and subsequently into that of the trainer, who in turn presented him to Lord Kitchener for a charger. On the flat, however, his successes have been quite exexeptional, including the splendid classic victories achieved by Persimmon, Diamond Jubilee, and Minoru (in the Royal colors), Jeddah, Ossian, Miss Jummy, Thais, and Gorgos, Cannon, on the other hand, hardly knows the meaning of a winter rest, and has always bad a few jumpers in hand, though none to compare with those above named, and the few that he is now schooling are not destined to make history, unless it be Her Ladyship, which, however, has so far not taken kindly to hurdle practice, and bids fair to prove as jady as on the flat. Like many other Newmarket trainers, he has been deprived of his valuable as a schoolmaster and showed promise of making a first-class jockey, has joined the Royal Field Artillery, and leaves for India. Charles Marsh, who trained Cherimoya when she won the Oaks for Mr. Brodrick Cloete, has also enlisted in the cavalry.

making a first-class jockey, has joined the Royal Field Artillery, and leaves for India. Charles Marsh, who trained Cherimora when she won the Oaks for Mr. Brodrick Cloete, has also enlisted in the cavalry.

As regards jumpers, principally hurdle-racers, there are signs at Newmarket of far greater activity this season than for many years past, for unwards of fifty horses have already been recruited, with more to follow. Mr. George Lambton, who had a lot of experience during a long association with Joseph Cannon before he went to Staniev House, will have a few, and although he lost a useful one in Lord Derby's Mariano, sold last week for 750 guineas to Capt. Barnett, he himself bought what may turn out a bargain in Gheut Azalea, as she is a quick, natural jumper, as far as can by judged from several schools over small flights, and others that shape well are Diadumenos, Stoke Dabernon, and Ecfaireur. The first might easily develop into a high-class hurdle racer. Lord Durham is to have one or two, and Percy Peck has already put through their preliminary facings Simon Surf. Millbridge, Poet's License, and Redoubt, and all look like paying their way. T. Waugh has already struck oil with Strike the Lyre, which started well at Birmingham when he beat a large field, including Maubeuge and Politian, for a maiden hurdle race, and was apparently winning again at Leicester whea his saddle unfortunately slipped and left his jockey—that fine horseman Lancaster—utterly helpiess at the finish. Sunny Land, in the same stable, is a quick-actioned, neat, and compact little fellow that has taken kindly to his new work, and a good deal is expected from Lady's Collar, which was unlucky at Kempton white Sneezer came down in front of left, Mr. Pick, on his Haydock form, should developinto a winner before he is much older. Scintillator and Kyoto jump well, but the former is a bad roarer, and holy Smoke may be difficult to train.

Of S. H. Darling's beginners Simile is said to jump like a cat, and Traicee and Agnate are both expected to

EUROPEAN WAR DEVELOPMENTS.

It is officially announced by the Russian government that the Germans have failed in their attempt to break the Russian center in front of Warsay. The expectation in London is that Field Marshal von Hindenburg must order a retreat or find himself in the situation that ruined Napoleon in 1812. The most definite news of German failure comes not from Petrograd, but from Berlin. The German war office admits that the German forces along the river Bzura are no longer attacking. This admission seems to show that the Germans have paid dearly for their invasion of Poland and that the loss of 50,000 killed, wounded and missing in the last two weeks has brought them little nearer to Warsaw. They got across the Bzura in one place only. This was at a village south of Sochaczow, thirty miles west of Warsaw. They tried desperately to hold the position long enough for the arrival of the main forces. But the Russians shelled the invaders out of the village according to Petrograd advices.

An attack by British cruisers, destroyers and hydroplanes on the German naval base in the North sea, of which Wilhelmshaven and Cuxhaven are important centers, is reported in a statement from the German admirality: "The admirality reports to day," the statement asserted, "that on December 25-eight British ships made a dash luto a German bay, Hydroplanes convoyed by them advanced against the mouths of the German rivers and hurled bombs at the anchored ships there and a gas tank near Cuxhaven, without hitting them or doing any damage. The hydroplanes were fired upon and withdrew to the west. German airships and aeroplanes reconnoitered against the British forces and hit with bombs two British destroyers and one convoy. Fire started on the latter. Fog prevented a continuation of the fighting."

of the fighting."

It is believed at Petrograd that Przemsyl is at its last gasp. Jufrequent sorties, all ending in disaster, have weakened, if not destroyed the moral of the defenders. Nothing appears left for them but surrender or annihilation. Desperate efforts of the Austrians to relieve the fortress have signally failed, according to the Russians.

Diplomatic conversations are actually in progress on the question of bringing Japanese troops to Europe to fight with the allies, according to a statement by Stephen Pichon, former minister of war, in the Paris Petit Journal.

AN ECCENTRIC REASON FOR BIDDING.

Discussing some aspects of the December sale of thoroughbreds at Newmarket, England, "The Special Commissioners" said in a recent issue of London Sportsman: "As for the sales this week they have proved quite remarkably good. That is to say, there has been a big volume of business at lower prices than during the last two years, but still quite good. Those years of comparative madness were almost entirely controlled by Mr. Mantascheff insofar as prices were concerned. That gentleman's expansive plaid cap in 1912 excited other bidders to extraordinary efforts in opposition. It seems almost incredible, but this is to my certain knowledge the fact. One well-known gentleman, after making a big purchase in which he outstayed Mr. Mantascheff, said to me: 'I know I have given about 2,000 too much, but I was determined not to be beaten by a man wearing such a cap!' Another English buyer went far beyond what he intended on being urged or not to be beaten by a man in a cap like that!' This also I heard with my own ears. It seems strange, but is none the less true. This year we have reverted to more normal competition, and the prices, such as they have been, would have been quite acceptable seven or eight years ago."
